

THE BOB BUSSEL LABOR HISTORY LECTURE SERIES PRESENTS ITS INAUGURAL SPEAKER

Why Farm Worker Justice Must Come from the Bottom Up

Matt Garcia

Ralph and Richard Lazarus Professor of History, Latin American, Latino, and Caribbean Studies, and Human Relations, Dartmouth College

October 3, 2022

4:00-5:30 pm

Knight Law Center, Room 175
1515 Agate St., Eugene, OR

Dr. Garcia will speak about the continuing challenges to farmworker organizing, and to explore models of “social responsibility” and labor rights in the food industry over the last fifty years.

LABOREGON
LERC
LABOR EDUCATION &
RESEARCH CENTER

CAS Department of History

Wm
Wayne Morse Center
for Law and Politics

Sponsored by the The University of Oregon
Labor Education and Research Center
The Wayne Morse Center for Law and Politics
Department of History

O
UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Photo: Tim Mossholder, Unsplash.com